

San Antonio Tour

3 days, 2 nights

Day One:

The group will depart in the morning, to arrive in San Antonio midday. Upon arrival, the group will visit the Tower of the Americas, where the group will enjoy a bird's eye view of the Alamo city at the 750-tall observation deck. Afterwards, the group will head over to the San Antonio Riverwalk for a scenic River Cruise. After dinner at a Riverwalk restaurant, the group will enjoy free time for shopping in this popular San Antonio district. The group will depart for the hotel in the evening.

Day Two:

This morning, the group will begin with an IMAX movie highlighting the history of the Alamo. After the movie, the group will enjoy an audio tour of the historic Alamo, the site of the thirteen-day battle during the Texas Revolution. After lunch, the group will continue touring at the Spanish Governor's Palace, labeled "the most beautiful building in San Antonio." Later, the group will explore and learn more about Texan history at the Institute of Texan Cultures. After dinner, the group will enjoy hundreds of fascinating and bizarre exhibits at Ripley's Believe It Or Not!

Day Three:

This morning, the group will head out to Natural Bridge Caverns for a guided tour 180 feet below ground! Explore the ancient formations and stunning features of this natural wonder! Next the group will delve further into Texas' natural history at the Witte Museum before heading home (stopping for dinner along the way).
